Elder Nomination Process

Our elder nomination process is underway and will be open until Sunday, March 16. Nomination forms and a sheet highlighting biblical information on elder qualities are available on the table in the foyer against the "Leadership Wall." Additionally, you may complete the nomination form online using the link at the bottom of this message. Completed and signed paper nomination forms may be placed in the box on the table.

We encourage you to consider which men you think would be good shepherds for the flock here at Faith Village and submit their names for consideration. Please check with each man before submitting his name to make sure he would be willing to serve. Please continue to pray that we will find men who will be beneficial to the growth, strength, and faithfulness of this congregation for years to come.
